CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP AND APPLICATION

Compliance with the Principles of Medical Ethics as interpreted in the Code of Medical Ethics, the Bylaws of the American Medical Association, and the Rules of the AMA Council on Ethical and Judicial Affairs are conditions of applying for AMA / HMA membership.

- The Principles are a declaration of ethical guidelines, created by the AMA for physicians and are accessible online at: www.ama-assn.org/ama/pub/category/2512.html
- The Code of Medical Ethics may be viewed online at: www.ama-assn.org/ama/pub/category/2498.html
- The AMA's Bylaws are accessible at: www.ama-assn.org/ama/pub/category/13374.html

Unless otherwise disclosed to the AMA Office of General Counsel, by submitting your application you confirm you have not:

i. been convicted of a fraud or a felony within the last five years;

ii. had any action taken against you in any jurisdiction within the last five years (or extending to within the last five years) regarding your license to practice medicine (including actions involving revocation, suspension, limitation, probation or any other sanctions or conditions imposed upon your license); or

iii. been the subject of any disciplinary action by any medical society, hospital staff, federal or state government within the last five years.

Membership is contingent upon HMA / AMA acceptance of the membership application. The endorsement, deposit, or negotiation of an applicant’s check does not guarantee admission into or acceptance of membership by the HMA / AMA. Checks received will routinely be deposited without a determination of the propriety of the payment or the applicability of the amount. Applicants who are not admitted to membership will receive a refund for the amount submitted.

I am aware that the information submitted in this application will be verified. I hereby authorize other organizations having information relating to this application, including governmental and regulatory entities, to release any and all such information.

I also agree to notify the Hawaii Medical Association and the County Medical Society of any disciplinary actions, adverse decisions, or restrictions placed upon my medical license.

The foregoing information is true and complete and I endorse the AMA Principles of Medical Ethics.
